Editor's Notes by Nick Buchholz

A quicky newsletter for a slow summer. The "Boat" show is over and we saw lots of neat stuff there. The "Living Desert" museum layout was brilliant. Anyone who hasn't seen it and is passing through Palm Desert between October and June should stop off.

The Treasurer wanted me to put an announcement about dues. They are due. Actually they are over due. If you haven't paid your dues by now bring a check money order or three stoats to the July meeting. (The stoats should be crated). OK I lied about the stoats.

July Meeting

Gary has been adding to the railroad again embarassing the rest of us with his energy and industry. Come to the meeting and see what he's added.

We will be discussing work to be done on the modules before the September show.

Dues are due in June, This is July.

Fred Wray the Treasurer has asked me to announce that 75% of the members have not sent in thier dues as yet. Since this newsletter is woefully short of actual news I decided to overdo the overdue dues to do. Bring a check cash of money order to the july meeting or mail them to Fred Wray.

We have a winner

The winner of the home show raffle was Kris Hall of Tucson

1923 Depot Hack for sale on EBAY.
