“Outside of the box” and “Across the pond”! If you missed the March luncheon, you missed a great meal at a unique restaurant. Fifteen enthusiastic club members arrived at Canyon’s Cown anticipating a good English lunch. The restaurant is completely covered in St. Patrick’s Day decorations and was very festive.

We had a “table” which was already setup for all 15 of us with menus, silverware, napkins and condiments. We had only 1 waitress assigned to our group and we kept her moving constantly. She was very friendly, had a great knowledge of the menu and a very pleasant personality.

The restaurant has an extensive menu which, of course, is very “English pub” like. We ordered a wide variety of items: lots of Fish and Chips, several Salads, French Onion soup, Corn Chowder, Chicken sandwiches, Spinach and Artichoke dip and I even think I saw a Cheese Steak make an appearance. Everyone enjoyed their meal and, as we left. many compliments for the food and the restaurant were heard.
